"On With the Show"

From early in September until late in January all roads lead to the smoke-filled attic on Park Avenue B., mecca of the hard working annual staff. For here are the winter quarters of the 1956 Gohisca Staff, the fantastic organization, which, for years, has been enthralling hundreds.

Amid a welter of humans, animals, cages, and arenas, a veritable miracle unfolds before the hundreds of Annual fans. An idea conceived many months before comes into being. Carefully studied plans and quick improvisations are blended imperceptibly into a fascinating whole that even those responsible for the spectacular end-product are not aware of the exact nature of the process.

As the day for departure from quarters draws near, activities in the crowded attic become more frenzied. New problems constantly arise. Exasperations of all sorts are commonplace. There is a great burst of final effort all over the place. Nerves become jangled and tempers are severely tested as the pressure mounts. The winter quarters become a scene of utmost confusion. It seems impossible that this wild scramble could be productive.

But, surprisingly enough, out of this tumult and disorder, a beautifully coordinated and perfectly presented, 1956 Gohisca, more thrilling and more gorgeous than any of its predecessors, will be born on time.

History

"Hail to thee dear class we love." We've come a long way since those words were first written and we have with us memories of four of the most carefree years we will ever experience.

As we think back over the years, we remember that all-eventful morning in September 1952, when we first strode up the steps of G. H. S. and found some 600 pairs of eyes staring at us. Somehow we survived those first scared and frightened moments, but at that time we were not quite so sure that we would. Remember freshman day and having to count those bricks? Then came the magazine drive, homecoming, and finally Stunt Night. We were bursting with pride when our stunt, "L'il Abner," won first place. At last we had made our own way into Goldsboro High School.

Our Sophomore year—now it was our turn to look down on someone. It was our year to carry out freshman day and Oh! what a rugged day it was—for the freshmen, that is. Again this year we took top honors in Stunt Night with our never-to-be forgotten stunt, "Stagline 10." To climax the year was our big bus ride to the Cliffs for our class picnic.

At last we were Juniors!—This was the biggest year yet, and along with it came responsibility. This year we took second place in Stunt Night, but we had a great moment when one of our boys was crowned "Mr. G. H. S." Then came our big prom! The Junior-Senior had been a thing we had only heard and dreamed about and now it was falling squarely in our laps. There were many hours of hard work spent but all agreed that it had been worth every minute when we saw our French Cafe come to life.

Seniors—yes, the long-awaited honor was here. We had our chance to go first in the lunch line, sit in the front seats of the auditorium, and be the general "Superiors" of the school. The time came when we flashed proudly our class rings and ordered cards and invitations. The magazine drive, Stunt Night, and class day became memories. Graduation was upon us and before we knew it, the end was here . . . and the beginning. The end of four wonderful years together and the beginning of years of seeking our places in the world. Forever, we shall remember G. H. S. and her influence on our lives.

"And for thee dear class we love, we shall always have a place; now we pledge our true devotion as new goals we face."

In Memoriam

Deward Malcolm Heath, Jr.

*"So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
So near is God to man,
When duty whispers low, thou must,
The youth replies, 'I can'."*

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

We, the Seniors of 1956, being supposedly of sound mind and dull in memory, without realizing that our four years of contentment are about to come to an inevitable end, yet not knowing the extent and value of our property, hereby make a discriminating disposal of our earthly possessions and brilliant ideas in this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE II

To the Class of '57, we leave the glory of being Seniors and ability to win the magazine drive and take top honors at Stunt Night.

ARTICLE III

To the Class of '58, we leave our stocks and subscribers to the Curtis Publishing Company, provided that they aren't short winded.

ARTICLE IV

To the Class of '59, we leave nothing for it looks as if they have everything.

ARTICLE V

To all the faculty of G.H.S., we leave our sincere sympathy for their trials and Tribulations. And especially we leave . . .

To Miss McKeel, an honorary degree in the art of sarcasm.

To Coach Jeffrey, all the "moons" of Jupiter.

To Miss Ipock, our little games of truth and our analytical minds.

To Mr. Blysak, the U. S. Army.

To Miss Simpson, Edgar's "Bells," which left us long ago.

ARTICLE VI

1. Leslie Weil leaves Johnny Kennedy to any girl who can distinguish him from his brother.
2. Nancy Howard, the little girl with the artificial moles, leaves her ability to place them $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch from her right eye to anyone who will attempt it.

3. Norwood Hood leaves his great ability in oratory to John Henderson.
4. Rebecca Thompson (Tack), "Miss Goldpark Lake of 1953, 1954, 1955, and 1956," leaves her titles to anyone who is tough enough to handle them.
5. Billy Bagwell and Richard Proctor leave Clum's juke box to all G. H. S. "duck-tailers."
6. Donald Strickland leaves everything to Donald Strickland, who will be here next year.
7. Lois Herring leaves in the waste basket her energetic personality to Lottie Lamm in hopes that she will find it.
8. Bobby Hinson leaves, he hopes!
9. Steve Brown leaves his ability to get along with Miss Ipock to anyone who will work physics in trig.
10. Billy Dail (Mole) leaves his degree in Chemistry to Raymond Allen.
11. Jack Fail (Bread) and Larry Frederick (Butter) leave their mercury feet to next year's gridders.
12. Harold O'Tuel leaves his seeing eye dog to Jan Kneib.
13. Loren Pate leaves his pegged pants to Pete Jarrell.
14. Carol Carson and John Robert Eakes leave their titles as Mr. and Miss "Safety Driver" to the students in Driver Training.
15. Dean Best leaves his life guard whistle to any other Casanova on Atlantic Beach.
16. Elizabeth Ann Cross leaves her ability to sleep on class to Tim Strickland.
17. Since Marlene Malpass has nothing else to leave, she bequeaths her low blood pressure to Linda Talton.
18. Edward Pilkington leaves his acting ability to Mickey ("Groucho Marx") Carroll.
19. Johnny McNairy and Larry Butler left . . . last year.
20. To everyone, may you study as hard as Frances Smith and Sonya Knight, worry as much about grades as Cynthia Denny, and talk as much as Jim Black, for it will get you nowhere.

ARTICLE VII

Lastly, we the graduating class of 1956 of Goldsboro High School, do hereby will and bequeath to all future senior classes, the fun and spirit that has reigned among us.

Prophecy

A circus draws a large crowd. Since I was just returning from Alaska on an expedition with Admiral (J. C.) Byrd, I decided to go to the circus on my first day home.

As I boarded the bus to go to the fairground, who should be driving that bus but Nick Gwatney.

Arriving at the fairground, I noticed that by my watch it was yet a half hour before the performance would begin. I decided to walk around to see if I could spot any of my old school chums.

As I walked around the tent, I came upon two fellows but couldn't tell what they were doing. Getting a little closer I could see that it was Eugene Lindsey and Charles Worrell sewing up holes in the tent. About this time the tent foreman came up and told these two to hurry up. When he turned his face toward me I could see that it was Billy Henry. He went rushing on off mumbling to himself about sorry workers.

At this time I saw that a few more people were arriving and that the side shows were opening. Walking up to a large platform I saw a fellow who appeared to be Bryant Howell driving nails through a board with his bare hand. Right beside him was C. L. Westbrook who was swallowing swords three at the time. Then I heard a voice on down the platform saying, "Don't keep suffering from muscular ailments, headaches and baldheadedness. Get this large bottle of Bunch's all-cure for only one dollar." There was Meribeth with Evanda Jinnette, who was passing among the neighbors handing out that old reliable Indian nature remedy.

Suddenly from behind an enormous wall there was a deafening roar. On more investigation we found that daring fugitive from the motorcycle factory, John Robert Eakes, who with great precision and tremendous speed executed the stupendous feat of riding his machine horizontal to the ground around the boardwall. Accompanying him on the handlebars was delicate Elizabeth Ann Cross. Over the roar of the motorcycle we heard a crashing sound and whirled around just in time to see fat man, Bill Woodard, crash headlong into the Tattooed Lady, Constance McIntyre. Together they plunged into the seal's water. Then who should come scurrying to the rescue but world-renowned trainer of sea lions, Barbara Southerland, shadowed by the elephant-keeper W. A. Bissette.

When the confusion subsided the blaring trumpets of the big top band erupted into spine-tingling circus music. It sounded like the old G. H. S. band. On closer look we found it was, consisting of "Turtle" Fann at the drums, Billy Powell on the sax, John Savage on the bass, and leading the brigade was that world-famous leader of bands, Jack Wyman.

As we purchased our tickets from that salesman of all salesmen, Johnny Alley, we became aware of a tugging at our coat tails. Turning, we found it was Louis Quinn selling programs.

After purchasing ice cream from Sally Ruth Brown, and a bag of peanuts from Jewel Howard we once again continued our journey to the big top, and gave our tickets to those old experienced collectors of tickets, Edgar Penuel and Loren Pate.

In keeping with the tradition that the circus gets off with a bang, the boom of a cannon was heard! Cannonball Gene Joyner zoomed through the air over our heads. It was evident this was going to be a bang-up session of the T. B. Circus (G. Thompson and D. Best).

Suddenly darkness fell over the audience as all the lights and sound faded. Then, over the murmur of the crowd we heard a faint but desperate cry, "Is John Bell in the house?" Mr. Bell was located and he quickly remedied the situation.

During the show we recognized many of our old school chums participating in the various performances. There was Cedric (Red) Johnson accompanied by Sula Newton on the trapeze. Another intriguing, suspense-filled performance was presented by the Nancy Howard-Leslie Weil tightrope team. The crowd received a jolt when delicate Nancy slipped and came tumbling to earth with a thud, but that ever-ready circus doctor, John Summerlin, was by her side in a flash. In minutes he had her aloft walking the rope again.

We were not at all surprised when Bill "Rodent" Dail, accompanied by Betty "Bring-um back alive" Peele appeared in the lion's den. In only a short time we found who wore the pants in that cage. (Trainers or lions.)

Another of the most entertaining acts of the evening was Cynthia Denny and her trained Arabian stallions, who went through their paces in flying colors.

In the finale Frances Creech, Nell Newell, Mary Louise Compton and Marlene Malpass appeared on the heads of those ferocious Indian elephants. Four more Goldsboro girls made good!

The evening drew to a close and into the past went the beloved memories of those happy days at ole G. H. S. The circus was gone and on the spot remained only the empty cracker jack boxes, busted balloons and sawdust.

Now, contrary to the belief of many a student, and I must confess, a few of the faculty, we of the Class of '56 have proven that we can go out into the world and make "The Greatest Show on Earth."

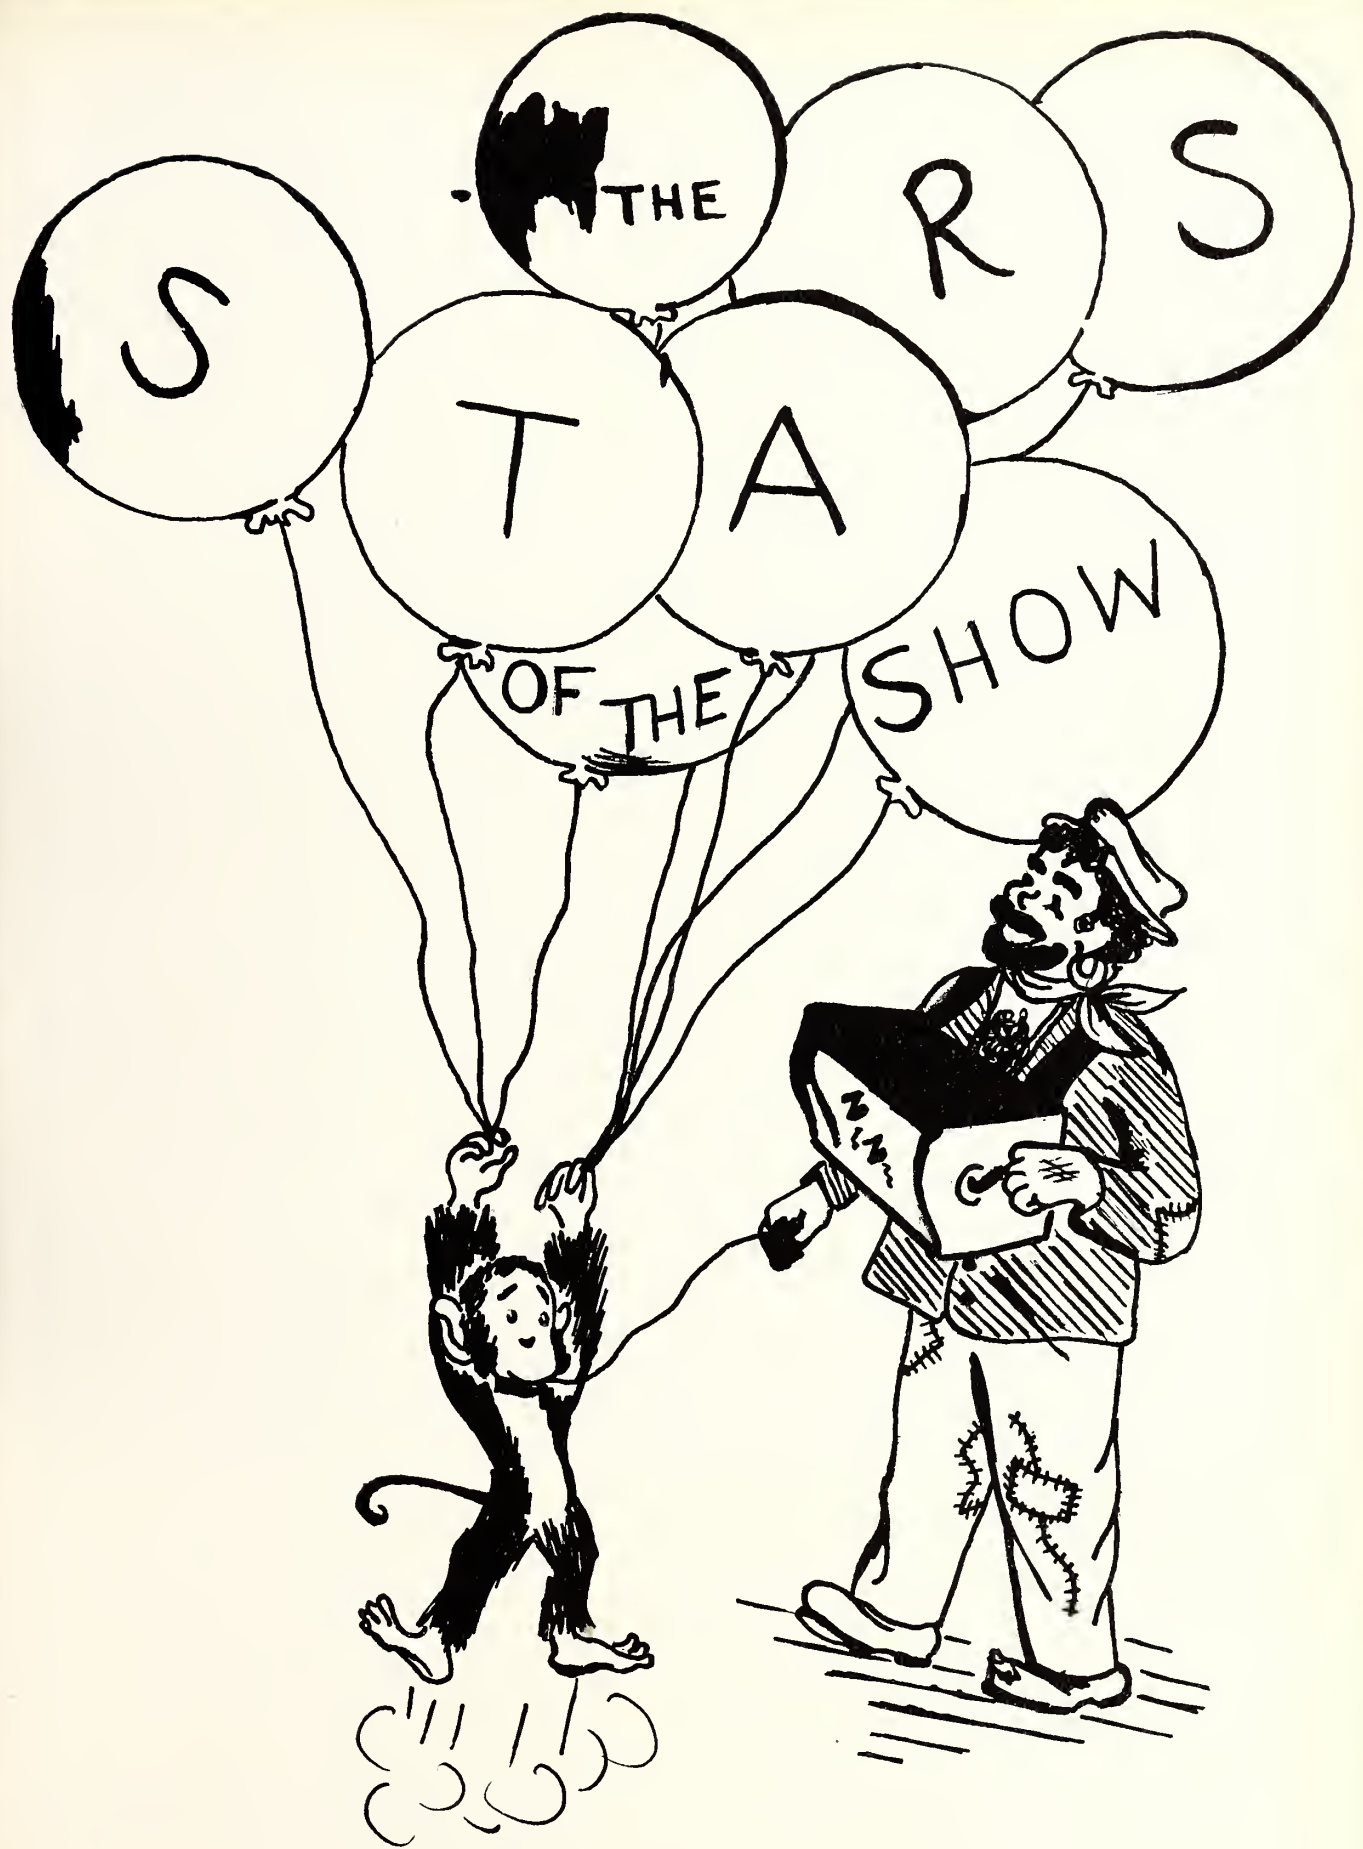

Our school activities
help us in many ways.
Here are a group of girls who volunteered to baby-sit while parents voted on the school bond issue.

The homecoming parade
is really lots of fun.
The rivalry between the classes is very exciting until the judges decision.

The magazine drive is another exciting event during the year. Many prizes are awarded to the highest salesman in the school.
Here are a group of students who led in sales.

Class Song

*To Goldsboro High the school we love
The Sophomore Class now rings to you
Our motto which we hold above all other deeds
we'll strive to do
As we unfold our colors fair, the lavender and white
So we set forth to do and dare and keep them always shining bright.
This rose so noble and serene, inspires us to our greater deeds
May its pure white keep our hearts clean, to always follow where it leads
We give our school, our town, and state
Our loyalty while we may live
Think not the class of '58
Shall ever take and never give.*

We Freshmen really get all tangled up in the things that we do.

Physical Ed. gets a little tough for the girls . . .

But . . . the boys never seem to get tired.

Freshman Class Song

*We are the Freshmen of old GHS,
 Until the day that ends our lives
 We'll try to do our best.*

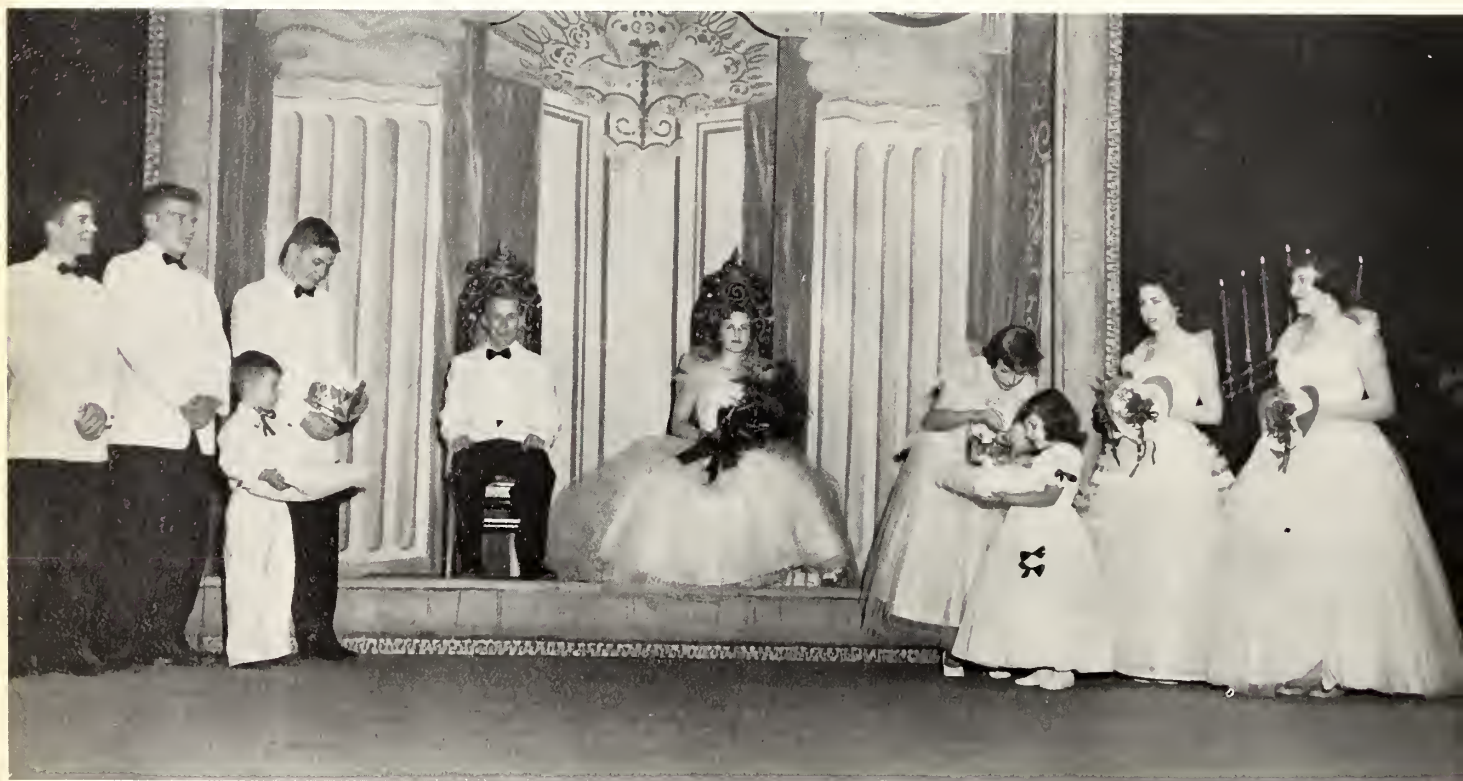

*Green and white we cherish
 White carnations, too.
 We'll strive to perfect, to learn,
 to serve.*

*Our spirits rise as we lift our eyes
 To the future now unseen.
 But let us fight with all our might,
 And on God our hopes will lean.*

*Our class we are proud of,
 We shall go to the top.
 For we're the class of '59
 What we start, we'll never stop.*
